ANNONCES ET NOUVELLES

GREETINGS

This message is being sent to all philosophers and philosophy departments, institutions, societies, and research centers for whom we have electronic mail addresses. We encourage you to pass this information along, and we would especially be grateful if you would print and post this document.

This message concerns an upcoming event which should interest philosophers from around the globe:

THE TWENTIETH WORLD CONGRESS OF PHILOSOPHY:
PAIDEIA – PHILOSOPHY EDUCATING HUMANITY.
10 - 16 August 1998
Boston, Massachusetts, USA
Tel: (617) 353-3904
fax: (617) 353-5441
e-mail: paideia@bu.edu
WWW: http://web.bu.edu/WCP

The World Congresses of the International Federation of Philosophical Societies (FISP) are normally held every five years. The Twentieth World Congress of Philosophy, to be held in Boston in 1998, will follow previous Congresses in developing a main theme while remaining as open as possible to the full diversity of philosophical issues, traditions and approaches.

Posters have been recently mailed worldwide. Updated information is always available at our website, and it will soon be available in several languages:
http://web.bu.edu/WCP

Below you will find information about: Registration, Call for Papers, group Space requests, and much more! We are especially eager to assist those societies and organizations that wish to hold their meetings/conferences withing the framework of the 20th WCP.

Plenary Sessions and Symposia:

The Twentieth Congress in Boston will develop the main of Paideia under several headings.
Invited Sessions:

The Program of this Congress will include a large number of invited sessions. The best contemporary work in our field will be represented. Complete detail on this aspect of the Program will be provided in the final circular.

Call for papers:

More than forty five sections invite contributed papers.

Other Sessions Inviting Proposals:

Proposals are invited for Round Tables on other more specific topics in philosophy. Proposed slates of participants should include some international diversity, and participants must be registered for the Congress. Topics and organizers are subject to approval by the Program Committee.

Contributed Papers Should be Submitted as Follows:

Ten (10) pages, 3000 words; three (3) copies, typed, with 1.5 cm margins on all sides of text; accompanied by a twenty (20) line abstract. If possible, send papers on a high-density (HD) computer disk in ASCII or “text only” format. Papers may also be submitted electronically to our e-mail address.

The Program Committee reserves the right to accept or reject papers on the basis of criteria of quality. Only texts of a philosophical nature will be considered for inclusion in the program.

Important dates:

September 1, 1997, is the deadline for contributed papers, poster session theses, and proposals for round tables. Papers and other contributions received after this deadline but before 1 January 1998, may be accepted if space is still available.

Please send all proposals and papers to the American organizing Committee, Inc., at the address listed below.
Meetings of Philosophical Societies:

Philosophical societies are encouraged to meet in conjunction with the Congress. Meeting rooms will be provided at no extra cost. Representatives of societies or research centers are asked to submit written requests for space by the end of August 1997.

Send all correspondence to following address:

American Organizing Committee, Inc.
Boston University
745 Commonwealth Avenue
Boston, Massachusetts 02215 (USA)

Registration Fee:

$150.00 before 1 June 1997
$175.00 before 1 January 1998
$200.00 after 1 January 1998
$75.00 Student/Spouse
$75.00 Single Day
If so, please specify day
TABLE DES MATIERES

L'opacité de l'histoire par Alain Vergnioux  5

Guerre et paix: Remarques incidentes sur le mal commun et sur le bien public par Etienne Tassin  22

Le "Mal radical" et la critique kantienne du christianisme
par Juliette Simont  36

L'enfer c'est les sorciers:
par Zekeh S. Gbotokuma  50

Kant est-il le Robespierre de la philosophie?
par Jacques D'Hondt  65

Camus, Science and Metaphors
by Colette Michael  78

COMPTES RENDUS

Luc Ferry//Alain Renaut. Pourquoi nous ne sommes pas nietzscheens.
   by Tom Rockmore  88

Sartre and Existentialism: Philosphy, Politics, Ethics, the Pyche, Literature, and Aesthetics. Edited with introduction

Bianca Lamblin. A disgraceful Affair: Simone de Beauvoir, Jean-Paul Sartre and Bianca Lamblin. Boston: Northeastern University Press, 1996.
   by Hélene Sanko  95

ANNONCES ET NOUVELLES

104